LU2799

WOKING

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE

17 MAR 25

FOR ADDRESS ONLY

By Appointment.

BRITISH BIRDS. Postcard No. 433

Redbreast.—The sad, sweet note of the robin strikes one most when heard in the shortening days of autumn. The nest is placed in shade in bank or hedgerow and five to six white eggs are laid, blotched with pale reddish brown.

"OILETTE" Postcard

Raphael Tuck & Sons' ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN

Copyright London

Printed in England

Here are pretty dont you think
Weather very mild
To day. Quite Warm
Hope Mother is Keeping Better
A.

Mrs G. Cave
"Hillcot"
17. Culliford Rd
Dorchester
Dorset

CTPA 12.9